We Care, We Listen, We Act

What does the Child Protection Committee aim to do?

There are three key things:

1. Strategic Leadership
2. Continuous Improvement
3. Public Information and Communication

Sharing Responsibility - Protecting Children

What has the Inverclyde Child Protection Committee achieved and are planning to achieve in relation to its three key areas?

Strategic Leadership

During 2015/16

We Have

Maintained strong links with the SOA, Alcohol and Drug Partnership and the Violence Against Women Partnership.

Contributed to the work of National and West of Scotland Protection Forum.

Developed the Vulnerable Young Person's Operational Group.

Reviewed our Domestic Abuse Protocol.

Published local guidance on Child Trafficking.

Continuous Improvement

During 2015/16

We Have

Undertaken multiagency case reviews.

Reviewed our Special Needs In Pregnancy Service.

Audited Child Protection Orders.

Delivered multi-agency training on the National Risk Assessment Framework.

Developed briefings and support materials on co-sleeping.

Used the Annual Child Protection Committee Conference to focus on the theme of CSE.

Public Information & Communication

During 2015/16

We Have

Delivered a Public Awareness Campaign on Child Sexual Exploitation.

Published Child Protection Information for young people.

Updated and maintained our website for the general public and professionals.

Evaluated our public awareness campaign – We Care, We Listen, We Act.

Strategic Leadership

Continuous Improvement

Public Information & Communication

Priorities for 2016/17

Establish a Public Protection Network.

Develop a strategic programme around Neglect.

Develop guidance on resistance.

Priorities for 2016/17

Evaluate the introduction of our Initial Referral Discussions.

Improve our performance framework.

Review and evaluate the role of the Child Protection Committee, Public Protection Chief Officers and Senior Leaders.

Priorities for 2016/17

Launch of a bespoke “Keeping Safe” website developed by young people.

Develop a participation group to support young people.

Evaluate new materials we developed for gaining young people’s views.
